Press Release

Tulsa UNCENSORED Film Festival 4.0 September 30th, 2006 (Saturday) - 6:00 PM Tulsa Little Theatre - 1511 South Delaware Ave

Tulsa, OK Sept. 14th, 2006: This is your invitation to Tulsa's only premier short film festival where art and creativity meet raw, uncensored talent. Tulsa UNCENSORED Film Festival doesn't mean distasteful films it simply means every filmmaker no matter how large or small is given equal consideration during the festival selection. There is no bias, and no "friends-only" acceptance no matter what type of film you've created. Films are basically Uncensored from any pre-conceived ideals about what a film should be. TUFF screens as many diverse short films as possible and is a true safe haven for all filmmakers. And as promised TUFF 4.0 will feature local films as well as ones from all the country, plus local entertainment, artists, photographers and much more. Including the Uncensored Monkeys, which you won't want to miss!

Jason Connell, a Tulsa native filmmaker, founded TUFF as well as Connell Creations, which just completed its first feature film "Strictly Background" and will be distributed early next year. And although he now lives in Los Angeles, Connell is continuing his dream of TUFF and its diverse line up of humorous, touching, edgy and sometimes provocative films. TUFF was created as a venue for local filmmakers to be able to screen their work but with it's success the word has spread across the country and countless filmmakers are taking advantage of the opportunity to have their work seen, heard, and talked about. In fact it's created such a buzz in LA that he recently launched Los Angeles UNCENSORED Film Festival (LAUFF), which is set for early '07.

Entries for TUFF 4.0 are now officially closed with the festival coming up later this month but LAUFF 1.0 is currently taking submissions. Also something new that TUFF is doing this year is offering a DVD compilation of the first three years as well as online viewing which is available now at the official website www.TulsaUncensored.com. As an added bonus a couple of short films from this year's lineup are available as well.

Jason Connell can be reached for comment either via phone or email.
